a. The VNNC to host a debate on March 12th at the General Meeting for all of the Sheriff's candidates in the primary election for Los Angeles County Sheriff. Guidelines to be determined, time allotted to speak, opening and closing statements, and potential questions for qualified candidates.

b. Submit a "Community Impact Statement" applauding the Los Angeles City Council's support for Councilman Bob Blumenfield's measure that makes Los Angeles the first City to be in full compliance with the Iran Contracting Act of 2010. In 2010, Congress extended US sanctions to parties involved in Iran's energy sector through the Comprehensive Iran Sanctions, Accountability, and Divestment Act (CISADA). Section 202 of CISADA authorized state and local governments to divest their funds from parties involved in Iran's energy sector and to bar such parties from state and local government contracts. The Iran Contracting Act of 2010 made California the first state in the nation to enact a law pursuant to Section 202.

c. The Van Nuys Neighborhood Council is seeking to submit a "Community Impact Statement" asking City Zoning Administrator to add stipulations regarding the property at SE corner Hatteras and Sepulveda -- a motel. (Property restrictions regarding prostitution and drug dealing are on the property -- and are in discussion to remain if the motel is torn down, and a better one put on the site.) That City or the motel owner contribute to increased DWP street lighting on the 15100 block of Hatteras - just east of Sepulveda and the motel.

d. Planning & Land Use Items & Issues to be addressed. (Quirino de la Questa)

e. Officially elect and or appoint Councilmember(s) to be in charge of submitting "Community Impact Statements" as well as reconfirm President George Thomas a CIS submitter.
