

NORTH HOLLYWOOD "NoHo" HISTORIC WALKING TOUR

2014 Dates: Feb 8th | Apr 12th | Jun 14th | Aug 9th | Oct 11th
Bi-Monthly, Every 2nd Saturday, 10:00 am - 12:30pm

Learn about real cowboys, pioneer families, movie television and recording stars, the Spanish conquest, Mexican ranchos, great steam trains, vast ranches and orchards, land barons, wars, architecture, and much more! Tour highlights include:

- ◆ Security Trust and Savings Bank (1924)
- ◆ Amelia Earhart Library (1928)
- ◆ Lankershim Arts Center (1939) (S. Charles Lee, architect)
- ◆ So. Pacific Railroad Depot (1896)
- ◆ North Hollywood Masonic Temple Lodge 542
- ◆ Lankershim Elementary School (Marilyn Monroe attended)
- ◆ Amelia Earhart Statue
- ◆ St. Paul's First Lutheran Church
- ◆ Weddington Family History
- ◆ El Portal Theatre (1926)
- ◆ NoHo Arts District
- ◆ NoHo Fire Station #60

TIME: 10:00 am – 12:30 pm

RSVP: 1-818-347-9665 or email at events@TheMuseumSFV.org

Please leave name, email address and phone number

COST: $10 per person donation: Okay to pay on site or pay in advance with credit card or PayPal. Go to www.theMuseumSFV.org, then Events-Tours-Donate button.

PARKING: Street and metered parking in area.

LOCATION: Meet at Amelia Earhart Statue; NW corner of Tujunga St & Magnolia Blvd

Thank you to sponsor
Universal City/North
Hollywood Chamber of Commerce!

Follow The Museum of the San Fernando Valley to share historical stories & photos.
www.TheMuseumSFV.org

