 - a. Speech and Presentation from the Office of Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti. The Mayor of Los Angeles or a member of his staff will discuss homelessness in Los Angeles, and how we can work together to address this important issue. (Background: Eric Garcetti is the 42nd Mayor of Los Angeles. His "back to basics" agenda is focused on job creation and solving everyday problems for L.A. residents. Garcetti was elected four times by his peers to serve as President of the Los Angeles City Council from 2006 to 2012. From 2001 until taking office as Mayor, he served as the Councilmember representing the 13th District which includes Hollywood, Echo Park, Silver Lake, and Atwater Village — all of which were dramatically revitalized under Garcetti's leadership.) (Joseph Chicas, Amanda Mejia, Eric Garcetti) -- 10 minutes
 - b. Speech and Presentation from Los Angeles City Councilman Paul Krekorian. The

In compliance with Government Code section 54957.5, non-exempt writings that are distributed to a majority or all of the board in advance of a meeting, may be requested by emailing info@vnnc.org. Members of the public are invited to address the council on any items on the agenda prior to any action by the Council on that specific item. Member of the public may also address the board on any matter within the subject matter jurisdiction of the Council. The council will entertain such comments during the public comment period(s). Public comment will be limited to 10 minutes with 2 minutes per individual for each item addressed. The aforementioned limitation may be waived by the chairperson of the meeting. (Pursuant to Government Code Section 54954.3(b)) Members of the public who wish to address the council are urged to complete a speaker card and submit it to the President or Secretary prior to commencement of an agenda item. Cards are available at the back of the room. However, should a member of the public feel the need to address a matter while discussion of the item is in progress, a card may be presented to the President or Secretary prior to final consideration of the matter. In the interest of time, All Board & Public Comments will be limited to no more than 2-minutes unless otherwise adjusted at the discretion of the President. It is requested that individuals who require the services of a translator contact the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment 24 hours prior to the meeting. Councilman or a member of his staff will address homelessness and how it affects the San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles as a whole. Born and raised in the San Fernando Valley, Paul Krekorian is a member of the Los Angeles City Council, where he serves as the chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee. Paul graduated from Reseda's Cleveland High School before earning his B.A. in political science from the University of Southern California and a law degree from UC Berkeley. Upon graduating, he spent two decades practicing business, entertainment, and property litigation, while also devoting his time to reduce domestic and gang violence. (Nikki Ezhari, Paul Krekorian) -- 10 minutes

c. Speech and Presentation from Los Angeles City Councilwoman Nury Martinez. The Councilwoman or a member of her staff will address homelessness and how it affects the San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles as a whole. (Background: Born and raised in the San Fernando Valley, Nury Martinez has dedicated her life to her community, working to create good-paying local jobs, keeping our communities safe and advocating for our children and students. A neighborhood watch captain, homeowner and a mother, Nury is working to deliver resources to Valley residents.) (Linda Levitan, Nury Martinez) -- 10 minutes

d. Speech and Presentation by Don LeStrange, Van Nuys LAPD Volunteer and Community Police Advisory Board (CPAB) Homeless Committee Chair. (Background: The Community Police Advisory Board (C-PAB) is a group of volunteers who live or work in the Van Nuys Area, comprised of the following neighborhoods: Sherman Oaks, Van Nuys, Valley Glen, Sherman Village, Valley Village and a small portion of Studio City. C-PAB members act as a liaison between the LAPD and the citizens to strengthen the lines of communication. All C-PAB members will put forth their best effort and participate in agreed upon committee assignments for the betterment of the Community in the Van Nuys Divisional areas.) -- 10 minutes

e. Speech and Presentation by Anthony Gonzales, Representative of Village Family Center in North Hollywood. (Background: The Village Family Services is Southern California's leading bilingual family wellness agency providing a comprehensive range of services to achieve permanency and safety for neglected and abused children and youth. Our approach centers on family wellness amid client-centered, strength-focused, trauma-informed, evidence-based and culturally competent care delivered by a compassionate, bilingual staff. The Village Family Services envisions a day where all children and youth are free of social, emotional, verbal and physical harm.) -- 10 minutes

f. Speech and Presentation by Ryan Bell from Community Outreach for PATH in Los Angeles. (Background: PATH is a family of agencies working together to end homelessness for individuals, families, and communities throughout Southern California. We strive to do this by prioritizing housing while providing customized supportive services for people in need. Our agencies each address homelessness in a different way—supportive services, permanent housing development, support for homeless families, and community engagement—all of which ultimately help the people we serve make it home.) -- 10 minutes

g. Representatives from the San Fernando Valley Rescue Mission. (Background: Established in an effort to serve the homeless in the greater San Fernando Valley, the roots of the San Fernando Valley Rescue Mission grow deep, span over 40 years and were established as an outreach ministry of the Rescue Mission Alliance – a Christian based non-profit organization. Founded in 1998, the San Fernando Valley Rescue Mission began as the Rescue Survival Outreach Services (S.O.S.) Program serving meals to the Valley's homeless. In 2002, the Mission launched the Family Shelter program in a collaborative effort with San Fernando Valley area churches in response to the critical unmet need for a year round emergency shelter.) -- 10 minutes

h. Representatives from the National Coalition For The Homeless. (Background: The National Coalition for the Homeless is a national network of people who are currently experiencing or who have experienced homelessness, activists and advocates, community-based and faith-based service providers, and others committed to a single mission: To prevent and end homelessness while ensuring the immediate needs of those experiencing homelessness are met and their civil rights protected.) -- 10 minutes

i. Speech and Presentation from John Horn, Representative from Los Angeles Family Housing. (Background: John has been with LAFH since 1996. He manages temporary housing and services for the agency's single adult population, including chronically homeless individuals and veterans and also serves as co-chair of the San Fernando Valley Homeless Coalition. John holds a BA and a Masters in Public Administration from Cal State University, Northridge.) -- 10 minutes

j. Speech and Presentation from Representatives from the Weingart Center Association. (Background: The Weingart Center is a non-profit comprehensive human services organization that was established in 1983 after recognizing that widespread homelessness was a new phenomenon facing the city of Los Angeles. Downtown civic leaders knew that combating the growing, serious problem would require innovative methods. The Weingart Center (WCA), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, has become that innovative agency—the Weingart Center provides homeless individuals with the basic skills necessary to stabilize their lives, secure income and find permanent housing.) -- 10 minutes

k. Speech and Presentation from Representatives from the Homeless Health Care Los Angeles. (Background: Homeless Health Care Los Angeles (HHCLA) is a community-based organization in Los Angeles, which provides a comprehensive program for any person in need of health, mental health, housing, or quality of life services. These services reduce the impact of homelessness in the communities of Los Angeles County.) -- 10 minutes

l. Speech and Presentation from Representatives from the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank. (Background: The Mission of the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank is to Mobilize Resources to Fight Hunger in Our Community. Our vision is that no one goes hungry in Los Angeles County. To fulfill our mission, we source, acquire and distribute food, and other products to needy people with the help of partnering agencies and Food Bank programs. We also conduct hunger education and awareness campaigns and advocate for public policies that alleviate hunger.) -- 10 minutes

m. Speech and Presentation from Representatives from Los Angeles Coalition to End Hunger & Homelessness. (Background: Since 1991, LACEHH has worked not only to register, but also to develop curriculum used to educate LA's homeless and low income population on the importance of voting as a means of engaging in the democratic process, understanding the impacts of legislation and changing policy in ways that will improve their lives. Since June 2007, LACEHH has campaigned in a collaborative effort with local East San Gabriel Valley (ESGV) organizations to educate ESGV communities and local government officials on the importance of real and affordable housing for creating vital, healthy communities.) -- 10 minutes
