Students and Aviation Pros Connect at VNY Job Shadow Day

WHAT: Van Nuys Airport (VNY) and Junior Achievement of Southern California are hosting the annual Job Shadow Day at VNY. VNY's tenants participate in this event by mentoring local high school students on careers in aviation. The event places students into various professional and trade occupations at businesses around the airport. The program provides a unique opportunity for area youth to experience firsthand the excellent jobs that exist in their own community.

Excellent opportunity for visuals of students participating in hands-on work activities and engaging with aviation professionals.

WHEN: Thursday, Feb. 22, 2018, starting at 9:00 a.m.

Job Shadow Schedule

9:30 a.m.- 10:00 a.m.	Students arrive and pair with mentors
10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.	Job Shadowing with Mentors
1:00 p.m.	Bus Departs

WHO: Participants:

- Students from Van Nuys High School and NVOC Aviation Campus
- Companies representing aviation trade and professional occupations including airport aviation businesses, LAFD Fire Station #114, North Valley Occupational Center, the Airtel Plaza Hotel, and VNY.

WHERE: Van Nuys Airport Observation Area: located off of Woodley Avenue at the end of Waterman Drive near LAFD Fire Station #90, adjacent to the east side of the airfield.

CONTACT: Call Diana Sanchez day-of at (818) 442-6526 or (818) 216-5290 (cell) in advance to schedule a photo opportunity to document students around the airport and in the workplace.
